

4 Blues in Isthmian squad

WYCOMBE Wanderers have four players in the Rothmans Isthmian League squad that meets the Hellenic League XI in their annual representative fixture which takes place at Loakes Park on Wednesday. The League's top goalscorer Tony Horseman and his fellow front runner Steve Perrin could make up two of the three forwards while Larry Pritchard and Terry Reardon are in line for the mid-field places. John Maskell is the reserve goalkeeper.

The Rothmans team, managed by Blues boss Brian Lee for this game, includes five internationals — Welshman Alan Phillips and England's Chris Kelly, Ray Eaton, Pritchard and Reardon. The players have been selected from seven different clubs in Division One.

No local players are in the Hellenic squad which is made up of players mainly from the top five teams. Four are from champions Moreton Town, two from Clanfield and two from Abingdon Town.
